NaNoWriMo for the Upper School

Every year writers across the world gather together to attempt an insane goal: write a novel in a month! Upper school students can join Mrs. Trinckes on Mondays after school 3:45PM-4:45PM in the intervention room for National Novel Writing Month (or NaNoWriMo). Program to start Oct 5 and run through Christmas break. October is for planning, November is for writing, and December is for editing. Will you take the Writing challenge? This year we will also utilize Google Classroom to reinforce weekly work. Email Mrs. Trinckes at jltrinckes@mcaschool.net with any questions.
